August 1

Marilyn Maingaart

Marilyn is currently the principal soloist with the Symphony of the Americas, Ballet Florida, Treasure Coast Opera, Palm Beach Pops and Coral Spring Pops. She is a recording artist and has performed all over the world with John Wummer, Jean Pierre Rampal and James Galway.

August 8

Mindy McGee

A highly acclaimed artist from the Catskills of New York to Atlantic City, the Pocono Mountain resorts and the condos of Southern Florida. Mindy is always a delight.

An acclaimed singer and actress she performed a major role in “The Stoop,” an Off-Broadway musical for three months to rave reviews at the Parker Playhouse. Mindy grew up in show business – she is the daughter of famous comedienne, Jeannie Revnolds.

August 15

Marian Winberg

One of South Florida’s most versatile performers. Marion sings, plays flute and keyboard with style and personality. Her program consists of international music and also includes the American Song Book. She has played for conventions, country clubs and condos.

August 22

Sheila Shteyrenberg

Ukrainian born, Sheila is an accomplished pianist and singer. She has performed throughout Europe and sings in English, Italian, French, Hebrew, Russian and Spanish.

Sheila has recently been featured in South Florida and Ocean Drive magazines as well as the Miami Herald.

August 29

Phil & Laurie

No one can deny the enormous, multi-decade contributions that Jewish songwriters have made to American musical theater and the classic American songbook. Music is such a huge part of Jewish life. Many of them were outsiders, born of immigrants fleeing persecution from Russia and Europe. Music is an industry you can enter as a ‘self-taught person and express yourself through theatre’. It was a good means to survive and they were all either born in New York or came there at a time when that genre was about to take flight. Here is just a sampling of some of the top American Jewish musical playwrights and composers of the 20th and 21st centuries – Irving Berlin, Leonard Bernstein, George & Ira Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Alan Lerner and Frederick Loewe, Rodgers Hart and Hammerstein, to name just a few. Phil and Laurie are honored to present a selection of these beautiful and timeless melodies!
