June 20

Phil & Laurie

No one can deny the enormous, multi-decade contributions that Jewish songwriters have made to American musical theater and the classic American songbook. Music is such a huge part of Jewish life. Many of them were outsiders, born of immigrants fleeing persecution from Russia and Europe. Music is an industry you can enter as a 'self-taught person and express yourself through theatre'. It was a good means to survive and they were all either born in New York or came there at a time when that genre was about to take flight. Here is just a sampling of some of the top American Jewish musical playwrights and composers of the 20th and 21st centuries - Irving Berlin, Leonard Bernstein, George & Ira Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Alan Lerner and Frederick Loewe, Rodgers Hart and Hammerstein, to name just a few. Phil and Laurie are honored to present a selection of these beautiful and timeless melodies!

June 27

Stuey Blue

Saxist-Singer-Composer Stuey Blue has been the opening act for such National recording artists as Wilson Pickett, The Trammps, The Staples Singers, Son Seals, Lonnie Books, Robert Gordon, and Brownie Magee to name a few. He played sax for the Coasters, Cadillacs, Harptones, Skyliners, Flamingos, Passions and Cletones. His band appeared in the major motion picture "Ishtar" starring Dustin Hoffman and Warren Beatty.

Stuey moved to South Florida and began a successful career as a freelance sax player and vocalist. He has performed at the Sunfest Riverwalk Blues Festival, Coral Springs Theatre, FAU, Hard Rock, B.B Kings and many other venues.
